THE PURPOSE of
Eagle Point Community Bible
Church is to glorify God and to enjoy Him forever

THE VISION of Eagle
Point Community Bible Church is to bring the people of our community and the communities we serve into a life transforming encounter with the living God and to teach them to live as members of God's family, growing in maturity and becoming Christ-
like in their daily lives.

THE MISSION of
Eagle Point Community Bible
Church is to accomplish our vision by the following means:

- Equipping believers for works of ministry and helping them to mature in Christ
- Becoming a church of compassion comprised of praying people willing to give ourselves away for the cause of the least and the lost.
- Building strategic bridges between our church and the communities in which we live, work, and play.

MEN'S RETREAT COMING

The annual Men's Retreat will be held February 23-25 at Wilderness Trails. The gathering promises to be a time of sharpening in an environment of bacon, laughter, snow, and fire. The van will leave the church at 4:00 pm for anyone needing a ride.

The cost is only $50. For any questions or to RSVP, contact Mike Bull.

FAMILY CAMP SLATED FOR MEMORIAL WEEKEND

EPCBC'S Memorial Weekend Family Camp will be held May 24-28 at Harris Beach State Park, near Brookings. The camp features formal and informal group activities, fun on the beach, and just plain relaxation at your campsite.

Our worship services are always a highlight of the weekend. So make your reservations and join us for our 2018 Family Camp (see bulletin information or contact Gillian at the church office Tuesday-Friday, 9:00-12:00).

A Prayer for Presidents' Day

First of all, then, I urge that entreaties and prayers, petitions and thanksgivings, be made on behalf of all men, for kings and all who are in authority, so that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and dignity. This is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior,

(1 Timothy 2:1-3)

the Bull Pen

We're off! Ready or not, 365 days stretch out in front of us, full of nothing but seconds, minutes, and hours waiting to be invested with all our new hope and motivation.

Top on the list, for many of us, is attacking the age-old battle of the bulge. If you question that, just look at the magazine rack the next time you check out of the grocery store or Costco. Let's face it, though, finding a diet that works isn't fun or fast. It's tough. I have found no way on earth to get and stay trim and fit without being tough on myself. And in the final analysis it's not all that complicated: the head must rule the bod!

As concerned as we may be about our physical fitness as we enter this New Year, I am even more concerned about our spiritual fitness. Thank God, I know of no scripture reference that teaches we will be weighed in before entering heaven. And to my knowledge, there are no angelic aerobic classes in heaven (which thrills me, as I have no rhythm). To my knowledge, there will be no celestial diet program in heaven (Amen!).

A new year is sprawled out in front of us. What's your spiritual game plan? Let me share with you my guide from Psalm 119:

*¹How blessed are those whose way is blameless,
Who walk in the law of the LORD.*

*²How blessed are those who observe His testimonies,
Who seek Him with all their heart.*

*³They also do no unrighteousness;
They walk in His ways.*

*⁴You have ordained Your precepts,
That we should keep them diligently.*

*⁵Oh that my ways may be established
To keep Your statutes!*

*⁶Then I shall not be ashamed
When I look upon all Your commandments.*

*⁷I shall give thanks to You with uprightness of heart,
When I learn Your righteous judgments.*

*⁸I shall keep Your statutes;
Do not forsake me utterly!*

*⁹How can a young man keep his way pure?
By keeping it according to Your word.*

*¹⁰With all my heart I have sought You;
Do not let me wander from Your commandments.*

*¹¹Your word I have treasured in my heart,
That I may not sin against You.*

*¹²Blessed are You, O LORD;
Teach me Your statutes.*

*¹³With my lips I have told of
All the ordinances of Your mouth.*

*¹⁴I have rejoiced in the way of Your testimonies,
As much as in all riches.*

*¹⁵I will meditate on Your precepts
And regard Your ways.*

*¹⁶I shall delight in Your statutes;
I shall not forget Your word*

Verses 1-2 affirm the reality of God's blessings to those whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the Lord, who observe His testimonies, and who seek him with all their heart.

And then, as we look into this new year, the psalmist asks the question in verse 9 we are all asking: "how can a young man keep his way pure?" The answer is in verse 10: "with all my heart I sought You, do not let me wander from Your commandments." Every day in your life, with your decisions, plans, fun, and struggles, know that consistency is the key:

Memorize Scripture (verse 11). A heart full of Scripture leaves little room for trash.

Something wonderful happens when we tell others about Jesus (verse 13). Make this the year you make your faith known. Some of us Christians need to come out of the closet.

Smile more (verses 14-16). Laughter has its benefits, too. Meditate on His principles. Weave them into your driving time, your workouts, while waiting for an appointment, and before going to sleep.

Trust God completely. Make this the year you dare to live by faith. When you are uncertain, hold His precepts in highest regard.

Forget the superficial ads and fads. Follow the Psalm 119 Diet. You may not lose 20 pounds of fat, but you will develop spiritual muscles that will make a difference!

Love,

Pastor Dick

Serving our Country

Elizabeth (Davern) Heinlein, has been sworn into the United States Air Force and will pursue a career in Aerospace Medical Services (nursing). Basic training is in March. Please keep her in your prayers as she embraces this calling and career path.

Joe Moulard recently completed boot camp in the United States Air Force. On January 12, he graduated in the top 10% of his class, which made him an Honor Airman. He is now at Shepherd Air Force Base in Wichita Falls, Texas, where he is getting his technical training to work on jet engines.

Missions News:

Vitalik Dudukaloff (the Least of These, Ukraine) will be speaking in the Morning Worship Service on Sunday, February 11. And then, at 5:00 p.m., there will be a special information dinner with Vitalik in the Fireside Room. Sign up information is in the foyer.

Long time missionary Bob Remington (whom our church body supported for many years) has gone home to be with the Lord. Our prayers are with Bob's family.
