the Bull Pen

Do you ever question your salvation and that you will live in heaven with Jesus and other loved ones forever? I mean, what if God changes His mind? Lord knows, He has reason to. Do you ever press forward, only to fall back in your Christian experience? What if God doesn't want me?

We all know the sting of being dumped by a boyfriend or girlfriend, fired by a boss, cut by a coach, maybe even expelled from school. How do we know God won't do the same? What if He changes His mind about us? After all, He is holy and we are anything but.

God answered this question at the cross, when Jesus died. John 10:28 says, "I give them eternal life and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand." The cross of Calvary is God's commitment to us.

And for the Israelites following Joshua, it was the miraculous crossing of the Jordan River, and they knew the living God was with them.

Joshua said, "By this you shall know that the living God is among you, and that He will assuredly dispossess from before you the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Hivite, the Perizzite, the Girgashite, the Amorite, and the Jebusite."<sup>11</sup> Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth is crossing over ahead of you into the Jordan.<sup>12</sup> Now then, take for yourselves twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man for each tribe.<sup>13</sup> It shall come about when the soles of the feet of the priests who carry the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan will be cut off, and the waters which are flowing down from above will stand in one heap."

<sup>14</sup> So when the people set out from their tents to cross the Jordan with the priests carrying the ark of the covenant before the people,<sup>15</sup> and when those who carried the ark came into the Jordan, and the feet of the priests carrying the ark were dipped in the edge of the water (for the Jordan overflows all its banks all the days of harvest),<sup>16</sup> the waters which were flowing down from above stood and rose up in one heap, a great distance away at Adam, the city that is beside Zarethan; and those which were flowing down toward the sea of the Arabah, the Salt

Sea, were completely cut off. So the people crossed opposite Jericho" (Joshua 3:10-16)

I am sure the people living in tents on the east side of the Jordan River had plenty of time to think and wonder just how they would get across the river, especially at harvest (vs. 15), when the Jordan overflows its banks with so much water. How could a whole nation, young and old, cross safely?

They followed the ark of the covenant of the Lord God (Joshua 3:3)). God led the way and He wanted the people to trust Him. When the priests' feet who were carrying the ark stepped in to the Jordan, the waters rose up into one big heap, from Adam, which was 30 miles up river from Zarethan. And all Israel crossed over onto dry ground. God did for them what they could not do for themselves.

Can you imagine the Israelite's excitement and joyful shouting? "Watch out, Jericho!" "By this, you shall know the living God is among you." (vs. 10). The children of Israel knew they couldn't lose when they looked back across the Jordan.

And for us today, when we question our salvation, our eternal life with Jesus Christ, all we have to do is look back to the finished work of Christ on the cross. The river we could not cross, Jesus crossed. "For whosoever would believe." The young and the old, the fearful and the courageous. Like the Hebrews, we have been delivered.

David said in Psalm 112:17, "His heart was steadfast, trusting in the Lord." Life has many unanswered questions, but God's ability to save us securely should not be one of them.

"If God did not spare His own Son, but gave Him up for us, won't he freely give us all things?" (Romans 8:32).

"Nothing can separate us from the love of God" (Romans 8:39).

Rest in your salvation. The past is past and the future is as bright as the promises of God.

Love,

Pastor Dick
